THE ART OF MISS JESSIE M. KING

The work of this talented young artist is now well-known in this country and on the Continent because of its striking originality and the graceful beauty of its design.

Her pen-work is shown at its best in a little book of drawings of trees and shrubs, called which is published at Sixpence net (post free 7d.), and in an edition de luxe at One Shilling net (post free 1/1).

BUDDING LIFE

Her colour-work is also shown to great advantage in a charming colour-print called which is sold in a pretty paper frame, ready to hang up, at One Shilling net (post free 1/4). Its fine taste makes it an ornament to any room, no matter how luxuriously furnished.

APPLE BLOSSOM

The following Sixpenny net books (post free 7d. each) have delightfully decorative parchment covers also designed by Miss King:—

THE MARRIAGE RING. Jeremy Taylor.

EVERYMAN. A Morality Play.

As the publishers anticipated, this selection has been a very great success, and is now the favourite Anthology of French Poetry.

BARBOUR'S BRUCE

THE METRICAL HISTORY OF

Robert the Bruce
King of Scots

COMPILED A.D. 1875 BY

JOHN BARBOUR (ARCHDEACON OF ABERDEEN.)

TRANSLATED BY

GEORGE EYRE-TODD.

AUTHOR OF "SCOTLAND, PICTURESQUE AND TRADITIONAL."

By reason of the archaic language in which it is written, Barbour's famous story of The Bruce has long been a sealed book to all but expert students of ancient literature. It has now been translated for the first time in the hope that it may resume the popularity to which it is entitled by the splendid merits of its heroic tale.
